DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT.

G.O. Ms. No. 5130 dated 18th October 1948.
Read the following:

From the Registrar of Co-operative Societies,
Letter No. 57770/48-F, dated 13.8.1948.

ORDER:

The Retrenchment and Re-organisation Committee has recommended the delgation from the Registrar to the Deputy Registrars of Co-operative Societies of the power to levy the costs of enquiry and inspection under section 41 of the Madras Co-operative Societies Act, 1932 (Madras Act VI of 1932) and to determine the costs for preparation of annual returns under sub-rule (5) of rule VII of the rules made under the said Act. The Registrar of Co-operative Societies states that the Deputy Registarars are now exercising these powers, but after obtaining his previous permission in each case and considers that such permission may be dispensed with in future. The Government accept the Committee's recommendation and direct that Deputy Registrars of Co-operative Societies need not obtain the previous permission of the Registarar when taking action under section 41 of the Madras Co-operative Societies Act or under rules V-A and VII (5) of the rules issued under the Act.
